Holiday Home Insurance made easy by Ecclesiastical

As a major property insurer for over 100 years, Ecclesiastical's pedigree in this field of insurance is second to none. Although we have expanded considerably throughout our history, we have never lost sight of our objectives. We have complete faith in the products we provide and in the skills and principles of the people who deliver them. We are committed to working with our brokers to bring you a quality insurance policy with the highest possible standards of service.

We appreciate that no two holiday home ownership scenarios are alike and we have therefore worked closely with your broker, Boshers Ltd, to ensure that the policy is designed with the particular needs of owners of commercially let UK holiday homes in mind.

Significant condition

Your duty of care

It is a requirement of this policy that the water tank and all exposed pipework in the loft is lagged.

If you fail to comply with this condition then we will not be liable for any claims resulting from damage by Burst pipes or Water or oil which arise during the period of the breach.

Unoccupancy

It is a condition of the policy that whenever the premises are left unoccupied you will arrange that the premises are inspected at least every 14 days by you or by an authorised person responsible to you.

In addition the following applies between the months of October to March inclusive:

You will arrange that either:

- (a) the heating system is brought into constant operation and a minimum room temperature of not less than 45°F or 7°C maintained throughout the property or
- (b) the water is turned off at the stopcock inside the premises and the domestic water system drained and other services such as electricity and gas disconnected (other than as necessary to maintain the central heating or security systems).

If the unoccupancy condition is not complied with after the time periods stated above your cover will be restricted to damage by Fire lightning explosion earthquake and by any aircraft flying object (or items dropped from them) vehicle train or animal colliding with the buildings.

Property damage

This section covers buildings and contents including your personal effects against a range of insured events such as fire, malicious damage, storm, escape of water, impact and accidental damage.

Features and benefits

Sum insured

Sums insured are increased by 'index-linking' right up until settlement of the claim, but you must ensure your sums insured are adequate at the outset.

Excess

That is, the first amount of each claim for which you are responsible.

Theft or attempted theft

Accidental damage

Covers most accidental damage that can occur, subject to some exceptions that insurers generally consider to be uninsurable. Examples are shown on the right.

Emergency services

Damage caused by the emergency services to any part of your premises including the grounds for which you are responsible.

Heating oil, gas and metered water

Charges payable for loss of heating oil, gas and metered water.

Significant exclusions and limitations

You select the sums insured which will be the most we will pay.

In the event of underinsurance a deduction for 'average' will be made when settling claims. This means that the amount we pay for any claim will be reduced in proportion to the degree of underinsurance.

Limit

Under the Contents definition: for books, works of art, television and audio/video equipment £5,000 any one claim with a single article limit of £1,500.

You will have to pay the first amount of each claim, the amount of which will be agreed with you and confirmed on the policy schedule.

Higher excesses apply to escape of water, burst pipes and subsidence.

- excluding damage caused by the insured, any member of the insured's family, any director of the insured or any person you employ.

- excluding damage caused by cleaning.
- excluding corruption of information on computer systems.

- excluding damage caused by police raids.
- only in force if buildings are insured.

General information

Law applicable

It is our intention to apply the law of England and Wales to this insurance unless you live in Scotland in which case the law of Scotland will apply.

Cancellation rights

Your right to cancel in the cooling-off period

You have 14 days from receiving the policy to write to the sender confirming that you do not wish to continue. No charge will be made and any premium you have already paid will be refunded.

Your right to cancel after the cooling-off period

If you do not cancel the policy within the 14-day cooling-off period the policy is in force and you are committed to paying the premium. However you can still cancel the policy providing you give us notice in writing. As long as you have not made a claim you will receive a refund of the part of your premium which covers the cancelled period, providing this exceeds £15. If you have made a claim then the full annual premium is due.
